CPRA Made the following Training Recommendations with Respect to Investigations in this Report

Training Recommendation(s)	The CPRA recommends that officers receive additional training related to the proper positioning of handcuffs.
	The CPRA recommends that officers receive additional training related to the potential intersection of 5150 evaluations and Miranda warnings.
	The CPRA recommends that officers receive additional training on how to assess someone who may be experiencing a mental health crisis or other related mental or bodily trauma
	The CPRA recommends that the OPD review training around finding out whether a detainee requires additional services or referrals related to mental health or domestic violence.
	The CPRA recommends that the Department review its policies and training around issues surrounding menstruation during traffic stops and detentions.
	The CPRA recommends a review of officer sentiment regarding the use of additional safety protocols when dealing with individuals who do not pose any clear danger to themselves or others.
