5. Board Debrief on the Results of the Budget Process and Impact on Measure HH Funding, and Considerations for Next Steps and Timeline for Possible Actions

The Board discussed the outcome of the budget and brainstormed ways to ensure that Measure HH funding is used to support work that contributes toward Measure HH goals. Chair Pallana asked if the $500K for administration, oversight and evaluation in the adopted budget includes 2% for tax revenues fund management. Chair Pallana suggested that committees continue to meet and work during the August recess. Tonya Love introduced the idea of asking City agencies and organizations that receive Measure HH funding to adopt internal organizational policies that encourage best practices around healthy eating and exercise. An ad-hoc committee will further investigate sample policies and how to create a vehicle of accountability for those who receive Measure HH funding. Julia Liou suggested the Board have a planning retreat in the fall.

One speaker spoke:

Katie Ettman, SPUR

6. Report out on the Human Services Department RFQ and Vendors that Responded

City staff reported on the RFQ respondents that primarily relate to the work of the SSB Advisory Board. There were seven respondents for Design, Marketing and Communications and all seven met the minimum qualifications. There was one respondent for the Research Study and it met the minimum qualifications. Next steps are for the Board to select firms to interview and to further detail the Scope of Work for these categories.

7. Administrative Update

- Community Grants Program Contracting

City staff provided an update on the community grants contracting process. One-on-one meetings have been conducted with all 14 entities that have been recommended for funding. The contracting process for each organization is moving forward once all required materials from each grantee are provided. City staff confirmed that the contract has an evaluation requirement and grantees have been advised to expect more specifics around this process, as available. The contract is tied to the Fiscal year and runs from July 1 – June 30.

8. Board Committee Updates

There were no Board Committee updates.

Chair Pallana reminded the Board about the three vacant Board seats and requested support to identify interested people. She will be writing a letter to the City Administrator's Office asking for the three vacant seats on the Board to be filled.

9. Agenda Items for September 2019 Board Meeting

The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for September 2019.

Agenda items:

- Invite Bay Area Nutrition and Physical Activity Collaborative (BANPAC) to speak about their healthy policy program
