MEMORANDUM

TO: HONORABLE MAYOR &
CITY COUNCIL

FROM: Sabrina B. Landreth

SUBJECT: City Administrator's Weekly Report

DATE: June 28, 2019

INFORMATION

Following are the key activities to be highlighted this week:

Upcoming City of Oakland Job Announcements – During the week of July 1, the Human Resources Management Department (HRM) anticipates posting job announcement(s) for the following position(s):

- Library Aide (FT and PPT) (Opens June 28th)

For the most up-to-date information on City jobs, please view the Employment Information page on our website at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/oaklandca/default.cfm>. The Employment Information page also contains information on minimum qualifications of specific job classifications, how to apply for a job on-line and how to submit a job interest card for positions not currently posted. For more information, please contact the Human Resources Management Receptionist at (510) 238-3112.

Free Downtown Walking Tours Offer Glimpse of Oakland's History – Through October, free 90-minute walking tours of downtown will be offered every Wednesday and Saturday. Eight different tour itineraries let residents and visitors glimpse both today's happening scene and landmarks from Oakland's past by showcasing the city's changing skyline, landmarks, churches and high-rises. Each tour, led by a volunteer guide, begins at 10:00 a.m. from various starting locations depending on the itinerary. The six-month-long Oakland Tours season ensures ample opportunity to take in each of the eight tour itineraries. Reservations are recommended by leaving a message on the Tours' 24-hour hotline at (510) 238-3234 or via email to aallen@oaklandca.gov. The tour brochure, itinerary descriptions, dates and starting locations are available at www.oaklandca.gov/walkingtours. Read the media release. For more information, please contact Annalee Allen, Tours Coordinator, at aallen@oaklandca.gov or (510) 238-3234.

Make your voice heard with the East Oakland Neighborhoods Initiative – The East Oakland Neighborhoods Initiative (EONI) is a partnership between the City of Oakland and thirteen community partners, centered on designing the future of East Oakland. Their goal is to create a more equitable, healthy, and resilient East Oakland by building off community feedback and expertise.

At this upcoming final EONI community engagement session, City and community staff will be sharing their findings from the past year of community engagement, as well as recommendations for next steps in East Oakland. They want community stakeholders to come review their findings, and discuss what might have missed, what they got right, and what happens next.

Final Meeting:

Where: Tassafaronga Rec Center, 975 85th Avenue

When: Saturday, July 13th, 12pm-2pm

Free Food, Raffles & Prizes, and Music & Entertainment

Summer Reading, now through August 3, at the Oakland Public Library - Start enjoying a summer's worth of events, activities, reading, and prize-winning for kids, teens, and adults at the library. Sign up online at www.oaklandlibrary.org/summer or drop by any Oakland Public Library location to register in person.

Kids are given incentives to read 20 days or more during the summer – they can become eligible to win a free book and other prizes. This year's grand prizes are a four-night stay for a family of four at Oakland Feather River Family Camp in summer 2020; one Family Membership to Children's Fairyland (for ages 0-4); and one iPad (for ages 5-14). All you have to do to qualify is read on at least 20 days (pre-readers can do other activities that promote learning).

Teens (ages 12–18) can register to enter the Teen Summer Passport Program. Throughout the summer you can collect points on your virtual passport for visiting museums, skate parks, attending library programs, volunteering for the library, writing reviews, and more!

Adults (over 18) can review books and movies or log activities for a chance to win a prize, including gift cards or vouchers to local restaurants and venues.

For a limited time, Summer Reading participants can come in to the library and show your Summer Reading registration to receive four vouchers for free tickets to a select Oakland A's home game. Adult, teen, and child grand prize winners will be announced after the Summer Reading Program concludes on August 4.

Details for all programs are available at www.oaklandlibrary.org/summer. For information, contact Nina Lindsay, Associate Director, at nlindsay@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 238-6706.

Local Authors Read from Dispatches from Lesbian America Anthology – On Saturday, June 29, from 2 to 4pm, a mix of newly emerging and well-known authors will join at the Dimond Branch Library (3565 Fruitvale Ave.) to read from Dispatches from Lesbian America. This collection of short fiction and memoir from 42 contemporary writers compiles thoughtful stories that address themes meaningful to us in the modern world. Six local authors – Giovanna Capone, Elana Dykewomon, Lois Helmbold, Bev Jo, Lenn Keller, and Dr. Bonnie Morris – will read from their work. For information, contact Sarah Hodgson, Branch Manager, at shodgson@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 482-7844.

Kids, Learn Engineering by the Book in Library's "Storybook Science" Program – On Friday, June 28, from 3 to 4:30pm, kids age 5-14 can come to the West Oakland Branch Library (1801 Adeline St.) to learn about science in the context of familiar children's tales. Anyone who loves a good story will be engaged in this fun and thought-provoking program presented by Scientific Adventures for Families. It will be a weekly program this summer, repeating every Friday through August 2. The same program will be offered at 81st Avenue Branch Library (1021 81st Ave.), on Tuesday, July 30, from 1:30 to 3pm (repeating every week through July 30). For information, contact Anne Lennon, Children's Programming and Outreach Librarian, at alennon@oaklandlibrary.org or (510)238-6844.

Main Library Hosting Jack London Readings and Concert – On Tuesday, July 2, from 5:30 to 7pm, the Main Library (125 14th St.) presents French cellist and jazz composer Vincent Courtois and actor and producer Pierre Baux, in a hybrid performance of Jack London's Martin Eden. Friends of the Golden Gate Branch Library Present Jazz on Sunday – On Sunday, July 7, from 3 to 6pm, the Golden Gate Branch Library (5606 San Pablo Ave.) kicks off its 29th annual Jazz on Sunday series. This week's featured performer is Joyce Grant & Company, a three-piece combo that specializes in jazz and old school R&B standards. Their performance will begin at 3pm, followed by a "History of Jazz" discussion (from 4:30 to 5pm) and a youth group performance (starting 5pm). Admission is free, donations are welcome. The Jazz on Sunday series will continue every week through August 25. Co-sponsored by the City of Emeryville, the City of Oakland Cultural Affairs Division, and the Oakland Public Library. For information, contact Erin Sanders, Branch Manager, at esanders@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 597-5023.

Pop-Up Exhibition: Anne Frank – June 11 through June 28, a pop-up exhibition about the life of Anne Frank will be on display in the City of Oakland's Dalziel Building, commemorating her 90th birthday on June 12th. The exhibition, Anne Frank – A History for Today usually travels to high schools on the west coast, inviting students to think about Anne Frank's life and the Holocaust, but also topics of inclusion, mutual respect, human rights and democracy. The exhibit is presented by the Anne Frank House and the Consulate General of the Netherlands in San Francisco. The exhibition tells the history of the Holocaust and World War II from the perspective of Anne Frank and her family. It traveled all over the west coast, visiting schools in California, Alaska, Hawaii, Arizona, New Mexico and Colorado. Selected students are trained by the Anne Frank House to guide their fellow students through the exhibition. Visitors of the exhibition in the Dalziel

Building are invited to share their own thoughts and ideas on the topics that Anne Frank wrote about in her diary.

Respectfully submitted,
