Unable to Fully Investigate (Temporary Provision): Presently, the CPRA does not have the resources to complete a full investigation regarding the allegations in this case. However, in each case under this designation, all relevant evidence was reviewed, and investigative supervisors determined that BWC footage did not reveal misconduct or the likelihood of misconduct. As the CPRA only has the resources to complete investigative reports into cases that reveal misconduct or the likelihood of misconduct, this case has been closed under the designation "Unable to Fully Investigate."

604(g)3 Adjudication: If the Chief of Police prepares his or her own findings and proposed discipline and provides it to the Agency before the Agency's investigation is initiated or completed, the Agency may close its investigation or may choose not to conduct its own investigation in order to allow final discipline to proceed as proposed by the Chief, except that in investigations of Level 1 uses of force, sexual misconduct or untruthfulness, the Commission must approve the Agency's decision by a majority vote. If the Agency chooses not to close its investigation, imposition of final discipline shall be delayed until the Agency's investigation is completed and the Agency makes its findings and recommendations for discipline.

Service Related: The allegation pertains to the level of service provided by the Department as opposed to the misconduct of a single sworn officer.

3304 Violation: Cases not completed before the statutory deadline under California law.

Unable to Fully Investigate (Temporary Provision): Presently, the CPRA does not have the resources to complete a full investigation regarding the allegations in this case. However, in each case under this designation, all relevant evidence was reviewed, and investigative supervisors determined that BWC footage did not reveal misconduct or the likelihood of misconduct. As the CPRA only has the resources to complete investigative reports into cases that reveal misconduct or the likelihood of misconduct, this case has been closed under the designation "Unable to Fully Investigate."

604(g)3 Adjudication: If the Chief of Police prepares his or her own findings and proposed discipline and provides it to the Agency before the Agency's investigation is initiated or completed, the Agency may close its investigation or may choose not to conduct its own investigation in order to allow final discipline to proceed as proposed by the Chief, except that in investigations of Level 1 uses of force, sexual misconduct or untruthfulness, the Commission must approve the Agency's decision by a majority vote. If the Agency chooses not to close its investigation, imposition of final discipline shall be delayed until the Agency's investigation is completed and the Agency makes its findings and recommendations for discipline.
