I. ROLL CALL

The Head Start Advisory Board meeting was called to order by Acting Chairperson Dr. Javay Ross, and roll was taken; two (2) Board Members were in attendance. A quorum was not established. The Board delayed action items in anticipation of the arrival of another Board member. The meeting began with the informational items.

II. INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

1. FY 18-19 Annual Report

The FY 18-19 Annual Report had been shared with the Board earlier in the year. Diveen a Cooppan called for questions. There were no questions from the Board about the report.

2. Special Report - Covid-19

Diveena Cooppan gave a report on activities performed by the staff in response to Covid-19. She also showed a PowerPoint presentation describing some of these activities. Some highlights were:

- Spring break occurred early for families, due to the order of the Shelter-in-Place mandate.
- Staff started "Shelter-In-Place" on March 17 (and began working remotely).
- Family surveys were conducted to identify needs (food and diapers were primary needs).
- Food and resource distributions centers were created in 2 locations:

(Downtown Oakland Senior Center and East Oakland Senior Center)

- Home Deliveries were made for families who could not "drive-by" and pick-up.
- Safety protocol trainings were conducted for staff participating in distributions.
- Educational and school readiness materials were distributed, along with the food.
- Remote learning sessions were established for teachers to engage with families, weekly.
- Organized and conducted a Head Start Parade (decorated cars with "Oakland Head Start" signs, drove by family's homes).
- Face masks, hand sanitizer and toilet paper, were distributed at the food distribution sites
- Head Start food distribution ends on June 24th.
- Families will be provided with information to other food resources for the summer.

- Remote contacts by the program will happen with families, two times per week, during the time the program is closed.
- Plans for reopening are currently progress
- Family Advocates, Home Based Visitors and Center Directors will be in contact with families over the summer to provide support.

Dr. Ross made an inquiry about what support our program is providing special education children with IEPs, and if the program has considered doing more activities outdoors. Alisa Burton (Program Supervisor) responded that the program is working through many challenges.

Wenonah Elms (Disabilities & Mental Health Coordinator) and Alisa Burton are in contact with OUSD to get support. Dr. Ross suggested that we also request support from our Council people. Diveena Cooppan stated that the points on the Selection Criterion for children with existing IEPs and IFSPs, have been increased to give these families and children enrollment priority.

Priya Jagannathan arrived at 3:31 - establishing a quorum
