THREADS OF CONNECTION, RESILIENCE, AND JOY

Oakland's City Council held a Special Meeting on Tuesday, November 19th to receive information on City revenue and spending, discuss steps taken to address an operating deficit, and hear from members of the public about the potential impact of unplanned reductions to current resources for all City programs, including the Cultural Affairs Division.

At Tuesday's Council Meeting, Cultural Affairs Commission Chair Vanessa Whang and Commissioner, musician and Oakland native Key Choice spoke to the powerful social and economic impact our cultural community has on Oakland. Commissioner Choice stated:

“These programs and events not only provide opportunities for our community to thrive, but they save people’s lives. These aren’t line items on a budget; they are the threads of connection, resilience, and joy that bind Oakland together.”

To learn more about the City's budget, and how these budget modifications may impact Oakland arts and culture, you can read the City Administrator's Informational Report to City Council here: City of Oakland - File #: 25-0260 , and watch a video of Tuesdays meeting here.
