

City of Oakland Excess Litter Fee Program

Annual Report 2022 - 2023

Annual Program Recap

Excess Litter Fleet (ELF) continues to support the community and council district request with impressive amounts of debris removed from the streets of Oakland during the November 2022 - October 2023 period. The primary ambassador ELF staff consisted of team lead Taryn, and ambassadors Ray and Michel who combined their efforts to remove 15,035 bags of debris weighing in at 546,015 pounds! Combined with the partnership with Center for Employment Opportunities (CEO), from July - October, this led to an annual bag collection of 17,558 bags weighing in at a record 610,898 pounds removed from 1,482 blocks for the City of Oakland's ELF program this year.

With an average of four employees during the term, we experienced 50% turnover (1 Policy Violation, 1 Voluntary) in January and February. We have had zero turnover in leadership for the ELF program during this term. CEO provided staff that partnered in cleaning of all districts with the ELF team on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays. Although District Works was not able to hire any staff members from the partnership with CEO, the ELF team worked with the CEO Supervisors and provided feedback and training for crew members to develop and strengthen their work skills, attendance, and employment expectations for future job opportunities.

Q1 Accomplishments

- Community cleanup at Lakeshore and Grand Ave between Lake Park and Mandana in District 2 and 98th Avenue from Edes Ave to Maddux Drive in District 7.

REPORTING METHODS

As part of our program reporting, we have shared view access with our Council Members and their respective offices via this link:

Excess Litter Fee | Daily Stats Overview

Council members will have full view access to our data collection as part of our monthly reporting which includes additional detailed information on address & location, collection totals and additional images of our work.

The information is available in a column view grouped by District to allow each Council Member to scroll vertically through their own District or horizontally to see more information on collections in other Districts in the City. Additional information on the number of bags and total waste collected can be found in the additional District Tabs along the top bar.

DEFINITIONS

Bags Collected: we count bags as either 25 or 50lbs depending on how full the bag is:

Regular Bags at 25LB with contents like: Leaves, Dry Newspapers & other paper trash

Heavy Bags at 50LBs with contents like: Wet trash or dirt/gravel 311 Requests - Reporting of graffiti and illegal dumping submitted using the SeeClickFix system.

Blockface - all of 1 side of a given street between 2 consecutive intersecting streets.

About OVM

Oakland Venue Management (OVM) has been producing a wide variety of events and managing numerous projects throughout Oakland since the company launched in 2008. Our founders have successfully developed their experience in property management, rental sales and marketing, event management, and project management working to activate public spaces, transform blighted lots, activate vacant buildings, and engage our community.

In addition to immediate temporary employment, participants meet weekly with their job coach for professional resume building, barriers to employment, and interview prep. Once a participant has demonstrated consistent work performance and job readiness, they partner with the job developer to get connected to job opportunities based on their career goals.

CEO assists justice-impacted individuals achieve long-term employment by providing retention services for a full year after permanent employment is obtained. Retention services include supportive services and barrier assistance, advance training opportunities, and serving as a “cheerleader” to celebrate milestones of continued employment.

and CEO Partnership

CEO's partnership with Oakland Venue Management Excess Litter Fee (ELF) program has continued to be a key component in maintaining the beautification of Oakland and its neighborhoods. This partnership provides immediate transitional work opportunities to Oakland residents that are looking for a chance to change their lives. Lastly, District Works' alignment to CEO's mission has led to an established pipeline of quality candidates from CEO's transitional work crews for full time employment positions.

The CEO/ELF crews are made up of justice-impacted Oakland residents who take pride in ensuring that the streets, public areas, and neighborhoods of Oakland are free of litter and debris. Neat and tidy streets and public areas contribute to the positive image of the City of Oakland, its neighborhoods, and greater community. CEO work crews and ELF achieve this goal through weekly abatement and cleanup throughout Oakland by addressing litter and debris collect frequently. ELF and CEO work crews help instill pride and enjoyment for Oakland residents, knowing that their communities are being cared for and well-kept. CEO work crews are led by dedicated site supervisors who take ownership in leading the CEO/ELF crew work and the diligence it takes to keep Oakland clean.

The CEO/ELF partnership provides participants a chance to gain hands-on job experience and skills necessary to obtain gainful employment. Providing immediate temporary employment opportunities allows for the development of additional hard and soft skills needed for reentering the workforce. Oakland Venue Management crew work aids CEO participants to understand and address barriers to employment that may exist. The CEO/ELF Crew partnership allows participants to build the necessary skills to recognize and navigate barriers, create resumes, and understand workforce expectations. We have discovered that participants who are able to achieve permanent job placement are more likely to stay connected to the workforce, reducing the chances of recidivism.

CEO's partnership with Oakland Venue Management provides jobs for justice-impacted individuals, and gives the Oakland community increased capacity to maintain and beautify our streets and public areas. Former CEO participants who are employed with District Works work closely with CEO work crew to provide representation and instill hope in others starting their journey of change.
