

Alameda County

Oakland Community Action Partnership (AC-OCAP)

Vision Statement: To end poverty within the City of Oakland and throughout Alameda County

ADVOCACY COMMITTEE (STANDING)

Purpose: The Advocacy Committee is responsible for providing advocacy, support, and education to increase awareness and to assist in the development of strategies to impact local issues that affect Alameda County’s low-income population.

Wednesday, July 5, 2017, 5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

150 Frank Ogawa Plaza, 4th Floor Conference Room #1

Committee Members: Stanley Richardson (Chair), Phuong Hang Duong Thi, Theresa Anderson, Lisa Ruhland, Max Chacana, Nayaa Lacy, Hang Mosier, and Angelica Gums for Supervisor Nate Miley

Staff: Estelle Clemons and Cecilia Garcia

AGENDA

1. Call to Order/Roll Call/Determination of Quorum.
2. Review of the March 8, 2017 Minutes – Attachment 2
3. AC-OCAP Advocacy – Focus Area/Strategy

- General (Approved by Board) a) Transportation - MTC b) Employment – PIC, WIB, AC-WIB c) Housing - EBHO d) Seniors – United Seniors e) Food Policy – CA Food Policy Alameda County Food Bank	-Principal Focuses a) FamilyDay - Free Admission for Low Income Children to Oakland Zoo, Chabot Space Center, and other City Sponsored Facilities b) Seniors c) End Hunger 20/20 – ALL IN d) Low-income Special Tax Exemptions e) Letter Writing Campaign
---	--
- Pending Projects
 - a) Advocacy Plan Development: activities and communications requesting adoption of a policy granting exemptions to low-income homeowners from special assessment taxes
4. Development of a Community Outreach and Communication Project
5. Affects of November Ballot Measures on low and moderate income families.
6. Review of member interests and activity assignments
7. Future Meeting Schedule
8. Agenda Attachments
 2. Advocacy Committee Minutes March 8, 2017
9. Future/Proposed Agenda Items:
 - Future:
10. Announcements
11. Open Forum
12. Adjournment

Alameda County

Oakland Community Action Partnership (AC-OCAP)

Vision Statement: To end poverty within the City of Oakland and throughout Alameda County

ADVOCACY COMMITTEE (STANDING)

Purpose: The Advocacy Committee is responsible for providing advocacy, support, and education to increase awareness and to assist in the development of strategies to impact local issues that affect Alameda County's low-income population.

Wednesday, July 5, 2017, 5:30 – 6:30 p.m.

150 Frank Ogawa Plaza, 4th Floor Conference Room #1

Committee Members: Stanley Richardson (Chair), Phuong Hang Duong Thi, Theresa Anderson, Lisa Ruhland, Max Chacana, Nayaa Lacy, Hang Mosier, and Angelica Gums for Supervisor Nate Miley

Staff: Estelle Clemons and Cecilia Garcia