Stop Frame Animation and Sound

July 22 - 26 Time: 10am - 5pm Instructor: J. NoE

Resident Fee: $300 Non Resident Fee: $360

Students will learn the basics of stop frame animation using white boards and/or by developing their own simple clay figures using a digital camera and iMovie. First we will develop our characters and initial storyboard on paper. Next we will translate our work onto the whiteboard, (and/or) into clay, and learn to animate our ideas using the frame-by-frame technique. We will also develop an original "sound story" for the finish animation. Participants have the option to work individually or share their workflows and collaborate groups. All levels welcome.

Painting & Drawing

In this one week camp, students will explore the elements of art through fun, hands on projects. Learn to use different mediums from pastels and charcoal to watercolor and acrylic. Students will go on daily field trips to different Oakland locations to do Plein Air (open air/out door) paintings and drawings. Destinations for outdoor art adventures will include Morcom Amphitheater of Roses, Lake Merritt, and Jack London.
