Commissioner Coleman took over providing us with a recap of the meeting, explaining the progress and key discussion points. The next meeting will be on Health and Wellness January 27th, 2022. Livable Oakland Meetings are held on the third Thursday of the month. Please email MCOA@oaklandca.gov if you are interested in becoming a stakeholder.

8. New Staff Introductions

Scott Means took this time to introduce Jessi Cutter who has officially promoted to Senior Center Director at the Downtown Oakland Senior Center. She has been the only acting director for the past few months. Jessi expressed how excited she is to transition. Scott also introduced Amy Miller who is coming in as Admin staff. Amy who prefers to go by AI has been working with Jessi at the DOSC to train and will be moving to the West Oakland Senior Center to work with the director there. AI expressed gratitude and excitement to join the team.

9. Commission Retreat Discussion

Chair Ricks opened this discussion up by suggesting they start to dig deep on what they need to plan for the retreat. Scott Means suggested a few options, stating we won't have time to bring in a consultant and requesting other options maybe using staff or bringing on a pro bono facilitator. Chair Ricks suggests checking with Valerie, and to kick the retreat out to March. Scott states we might be able to do it in person at a large facility. Commissioner Garrett suggests checking with Lenore to become the facilitator, also the possibility of doing it outside if we wait until March. Scott requested a motion for them to have the retreat in March for time to search for adequate facilitators, and for staff to research the viability of having it in person. M/S/Carried: Martha Scott/Tomye Neal Madison/Motion carried unanimously.

10. HSD Aging & Adult Services/COVID-19 update - Scott Means, Aging & Adult Services Manager

Scott opened the conversation informing us of the new vaccine mandate regarding the update on COVID-19. The senior facilities and senior centers are mandated to require a vaccine to enter. We are working on My Senior Center to enable a portal that seniors can go into and pre-register their vaccine status, reducing the need to bring and show their card every time. Also, deciding which services will still be available to the seniors who aren't vaccinated. Scott discussed OAM (Older American Month) coming up May 4th 2022. Scott asked for volunteers to help coordinate and join the planning committee. Commissioner Neal Madison and Commissioner Seibert volunteered to join the committee. Scott advised that we are immediately hiring for an Information Referral/Assistance staff, a really nice job for part-time work, does not have to be low income, must be vaccinated as it will be in person, and a union job! Contact Scott Means Smeans@oaklandca.gov to inquire about applying.
