6. Kick-Off for Older Americans Month; Chairperson Stadmire/ Scott Means

Scott announced the opening of the Older Americans Month event being held in the Plaza. He also stated the council report is being worked on - it will lay the ground work to develop an age friendly city.

Chairperson Stadmire expressed appreciation to Commissioner Sandra Johnson for her attendance at the North Oakland Senior Center.

7. Report/Announcements; Commissioners

 Sylvia Stadmire

The Center for Elders' Independence is having their diner on Thursday night. She encouraged all the Commissioners to attend.

 Matte Scott

The Livable Oakland ad-hoc committee is pursuing the World Health Organization's guidelines for age-friendly cities. The biggest concern is creating a livable/walkable/safe city for everyone. The committee will conduct outreach to the community to determine what works for the residents and what can be done to make the city age friendly. Commissioner Scott also recommended that everyone visit the table that has percussion instruments (Miracle Playsystems).

* Johnnie Mae Wiley

The Commissioners are invited to join the West Oakland Senior Center for their lunch excursions, which occur once per month.

* Sandra J. Johnson

West Oakland Senior Center is holding their annual Mother's Day breakfast on Saturday, May 12th, from 10:00 – 2:00. The donation is $15.00.

8. Adjournment

Meeting adjourned at 10:17
