- Walter Riley
- Commissioner Regina Jackson
- Mariano Contreras
- Deacon Reginald Lyles
- Nikki DinhJackie
- Jose Dorado
- Pastor Jackie Thompson
- Katina Ancar (Legal)
- Mykah Montgomery (COS)

Main Topics:

1. Community Sources and Vetting:
 - Discussion on the process of vetting community sources through the Commission, using ad hoc committees and available funds.
 - Importance of the Chief of Police's approval for community policing training.
2. Credentialing and Qualifications:
 - Emphasis on having a process to ensure credentialing of community sources, ensuring no conflict of interest and a proven track record.

3. Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI):
 - Advocacy for intergenerational, gender, and racial representation among community experts involved in policing.
4. Police Academy Training:
 - Incorporation of young people in training sessions for new police officers to provide diverse perspectives.
5. Use of Accurate Language:
 - Ensuring the use of precise language from court directives, such as "meet to discuss and confer," to maintain clarity and accuracy.
6. Sustaining Compliance and Accountability:
 - Need for a system that includes incentives for positive behavior and emphasizes the importance of discipline, training, and education for police officers.
7. Recommendations and Desired Outcomes:
 - Use of active language in recommendations to ensure clarity in responsibilities.
 - Aligning recommendations with desired outcomes to create an accountability model within the police department.
8. Conclusion Development:
 - Need for a strong conclusion to tie together all points discussed and present the Commission's position clearly.

Next Steps:

1. Draft Conclusion:
 - Mariano Contreras, Commissioner Angela Jackson-Castain, and either Pastor Jackie or Deacon Lyles to draft the conclusion for the document.
2. Review and Finalize Document:
 - Katina Ancar to incorporate all changes discussed and finalize the document for the next meeting.
3. Prepare for Next Meeting:
 - Attendees to review the agenda and documents, with a particular focus on item 9 for the upcoming meeting.
4. Communicate and Collaborate:
 - Commissioner Angela Jackson-Castain to email Mariano Contreras with contact details for coordination on drafting the conclusion.
 - Continue discussions offline as needed to ensure timely completion of the conclusion and document review.
5. Focus on Key Issues:
 - Ensure the inclusion of recent investigations and issues such as the Tran investigations in the final document.
 - Emphasize the Commission's stance on the necessity of sustained compliance and the role of the monitor and compliance officer.
6. Vote on the final draft of the document in the next meeting.

The meeting adjourned at 6:28 PM.
