What: The City of Oakland has four vacancies on its Public Art Advisory Committee (PAAC). We are seeking to build a PAAC that reflects the City's diverse population, culture, and neighborhoods in Oakland.

About the PAAC: The PAAC is a nine-member advisory body to the City Council on programs and projects related to public art in Oakland. They meet on the first Monday of every month from 5:30 pm – 7:30 pm at City Hall.

Requirements: These individuals would serve three-year Committee terms, fulfilling the Committee's requirements outlined on the PAAC website: <https://www.oaklandca.gov/boards-commissions/public-art-advisory-committee>

How to apply: You can apply at this link: <http://bit.ly/Oak-Apply>.
For questions, please contact the Committee staff member below.
