

Board Commissioner

Michael Hammock is a retired employee of the City of Oakland Parks department where he worked for 36 years from 1970 to 2006. He began his recreation career as a Program Director at Bushrod Recreation Center, was soon promoted to Center Director and rose to become the Recreation General Supervisor. He also managed the Sports and Aquatics Unit and was named the first Citywide Elementary Sports Coordinator in the Office of Parks and Recreation. After his retirement, he served as Parks Commissioner for 11 years and currently serves on the Parks and Recreation Foundation.

CITY OF OAKLAND