

Board Commissioner

Nile Taylor is a native and current resident of Oakland, CA. She holds a dual B.A in Political Science and Legal Studies, with a minor in Theater Arts from the University of California, Berkeley; and is currently a Program Manager in Compliance Advisory and Assurance in Tech. The daughter of civil rights activists, and families deeply rooted in Oakland's political and community service landscape, Nile has made civics the cornerstone of her life. She is an involved PTA member at her son's school, an executive board member in her chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, Sorority, Inc., a political activist, and an active participant in many community organizations. A proud Oakland mom who is dedicated to providing awareness and education to underserved and underrepresented citizens, ensuring change in the trajectory of healthy, safe, and informed choices for families.
