

DISTRIBUTION DATE: September 7, 2018

CITY OF OAKLAND

MEMORANDUM

TO: HONORABLE MAYOR &
CITY COUNCIL

FROM: Sabrina B. Landreth

SUBJECT: City Administrator's Weekly Report

DATE: September 7, 2018

---

INFORMATION

Following are the key activities to be highlighted this week:

Collage and Doodle Workshop at Rockridge Library – On Saturday, September 8, at 11 a.m., Caroline Stern and Elaine Bond will lead an art making session for artists of all ages. Work by these two artists is currently on display in the Rockridge Branch gallery, so check that out while you're there. In the workshop, we'll chat about the creative process and how to live an artist's life. For information, contact Paul Schiesser, Branch Manager, at pschiesser@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 597-5017.

Crafting and Jewelry for Teens and Adults – On Saturday, September 8, at 3 p.m., the Melrose Branch Library, 4805 Foothill Blvd., is hosting a get together for crafty teens and adults. Come to the library, enjoy adult company, and make things. This program is for English and Spanish speakers. For information, contact Kate Hug, Branch Manager, at khug@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 535-5623.

Financial Wellness: How to Make Your Money Work for You – On Saturday, September 8, at 3 p.m., the 81st Avenue Branch Library, 1021 81st Avenue, is offering a free 45-minute workshop that gives you a quick crash course in the basics of financial planning. Using stories and simple to understand concepts, we teach you how to start planning for retirement. The program will be led by Benjamin Packard, a registered financial advisor who specializes in working with clients who hate financial planning and like to laugh. For information, contact Brian Guenther, Branch Manager, at bguenther@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 615-5812.

Please join us at the 2018 Oakland Pride Parade, Festival and Celebration - On Sunday, September 9, 2018, City of Oakland staff, Council members and staff, and community members are invited to participate in the Oakland PRIDE Parade. This is an opportunity to celebrate our diverse, resilient, and beautiful LGBTQ community while promoting equality, community, responsibility, and civic engagement. The parade starts at Broadway & 14th Street (Oakland City Hall) and ends at Broadway & 20th Street (Oakland Pride Festival Main Entrance). See Map here:

---

<https://www.oaklandpride.org/page/pride-parade-map/> For more information about Oakland PRIDE contact Amber Todd at atodd@oaklandpride.org. To march with Mayor Libby Schaaf in the Pride Parade contact Yvonna Cázares at ycazares@oaklandnet.com, 510-238-7157.

The Last Woodminster Musical of the Summer – Starting Friday, August 31 and ending Sunday September 9, Woodminster Amphitheater will host performances of In the Heights with Friday and Saturday shows beginning at 8:00 p.m., and Thursday and Sunday shows beginning at 7:00 p.m., located at Joaquin Miller Park, 3590 Sanborn Road, Oakland. All Oaklanders are welcome to experience this 50+ year-old tradition. Arrive early to enjoy the views and picnic grounds, or to hike along hillside trails! There are plenty of discounts and deals that range from seniors to kids available at <http://www.woodminster.com/deals---discounts.html>. Don't miss out on the last show of the summer! For more information including parking options, please visit <http://www.woodminster.com>. To learn more about exploring Joaquin Miller Park, visit Oakland Parks, Recreation & Youth Development at <https://www.oaklandca.gov/services/parks-and-recreation-index/parks/joaquin-miller-park>.

Family-friendly Performances by 123 Andrés at the Library – On Tuesday, September 11, at 1:30 p.m., Latin Grammy winners 123 Andrés will perform at César E. Chávez Branch Library, 3301 East 12th Street, Suite 271. Admission is free. Andrés and Christina, both native Spanish speakers, incorporate language seamlessly in this high-energy show. 123 Andrés brings beats and rhythms from all over Latin America that will entice kids to dance, discover, and get the whole family moving, en español y en inglés. Come learn or practice Spanish and see why Billboard magazine called 123 Andrés “a rockstar for little language learners!” There will be another concert on Monday, September 17, at 10:30 a.m., at the Main Library, 125 14th Street. For information, contact Nina Lindsay, Supervising Librarian, at nlindsay@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 238-6706.

Youth Job and Paid Internship Fair at the Library – On Wednesday, September 12, from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., about 20 employers and youth agencies offering paid internships will be on hand to talk about employment opportunities. This job fair will take place at the Main Library, 125 14th Street, in Bradley C. Walters Community Room. In addition to talking to prospective employers, you can meet with advisors who will review your résumé. If you are interested in more job leads (dozens every week) follow @oaklandhasjobs on Instagram or view online at <http://www.oaklandlibrary.org/oaklandhasjobs>. For information, contact Brian Boies, Teen Services Librarian, at bboies@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 238-7332.

Celebrate Mam Culture at César E. Chávez Library – On Saturday, September 15, at 2 p.m., the Mayan Cultural Exchange will showcase the traditions and history of Oakland's indigenous Mam (Mayan) community in a celebration at the César E. Chávez Branch Library, 3301 East 12th Street, Suite 271. Learn about Mam weaving and the Mayan language while enjoying traditional live music and food brought to you in part by the Bay Area's Mam community! For information, contact Pete Villasenor, Branch Manager, at pwillasenor@oaklandlibrary.org or (510) 535-5620.

---

Upcoming City of Oakland Job Announcements – During the week of September 11, the Human Resources Management Department (HRM) anticipates posting job announcements for the following positions:

- Assistant Director of Public Works
- Housing Development Coordinator IV
- Performance Audit Manager
- Public Works Supervisor I
- Public Works Supervisor II
- Rehabilitation Advisor III
- Senior Center Director
- Senior Human Resource Technician (Restricted)

For the most up-to-date information on City jobs, please view the Employment Information page on our website at <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/oaklandca/default.cfm>. The Employment Information page also contains information on minimum qualifications of specific job classifications, how to apply for a job on-line and how to submit a job interest card for positions not currently posted. For more information, please contact the Human Resources Management Receptionist at (510) 238-3112.

Upcoming Meetings and Events - For information on upcoming City meetings and events, please visit the City's online calendar at <https://www.oaklandca.gov/events>. For events at the Oakland Public Library, please visit <http://oaklandlibrary.org/events>.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

SABRINA B. LANDRETH
City Administrator