

City of OAKLAND
California

News from: City of Oakland Human Services Department

MEDIA ADVISORY

November 25, 2019

City of Oakland & Lava Mae Host Pop-Up Care Village

Oakland, CA – The City of Oakland’s Human Services Department is partnering with Lava Mae to host Pop-Up Care Village, a one-stop experience where dozens of volunteers work to provide access for unsheltered neighbors in need.

Media Contacts:

L. Autumn King
Public Information Officer
City Administrator’s Office
510-220-3101
aking2@oaklandnet.com

Lava Mae works throughout the Bay Area offering critical hygiene services to the most vulnerable residents by coming directly into the community.

On Wednesday, December 4, 11am – 3pm, in Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, Oakland, Lava Mae in partnership with the City will offer:

- Food
- Clothing
- Showers
- Haircuts
- Acupuncture
- Art & Music
- Animal Care/Veterinary Services
- Mental Health, Social, and Medical Services
- Legal Aid
- Harm Reduction

For more information about this event, please contact Katie Switek (415) 660-7420. To volunteer with Lava Mae for this or future events visit: <https://timecounts.org/lavamaela/events/22903>

#